FACULTY OUTSIDE PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES      June 2020 - May 2021      Status: In Progress      Sync COI Entities      OPA Home

MIT's Policy on faculty outside professional activities includes the following general guidelines:
Full-time members of the faculty may devote an average of about one day per week to outside professional activities during the academic year (which comprises 39 weeks) and when receiving compensation during the summer.

FACULTY DATA RECORDS

The checked boxes indicate from Institute records if you were on sabbatical/leave during the current reporting period.

- Fall Term Sabbatical / Leave
- Spring Term Sabbatical / Leave

If, during your leave, you were in residence and/or had an appointment or affiliation at another institution (academic or otherwise), please provide the following:

Name of institution	Location of the institution	Time period at institution

If your leave was unpaid by MIT, were you compensated by the other institution?

- Yes
- No

- Do not report the number of days spent at another institution during your leave in the "Compensated and Uncompensated Activities" section.
- Do report outside professional activities that were separate from your activities at the other institution.

The checked boxes indicate from Institute records if you received summer compensation through MIT during the current reporting period.

- Yes
- No

Months of summer compensation paid by MIT  months

COMPENSATED & UNCOMPENSATED ACTIVITIES

List all compensated outside professional activities, both domestic and international; and all uncompensated outside professional activities (i.e., requiring substantial time commitment with no or nominal compensation), both domestic and international.

Examples of compensated outside professional activities:

- * Consulting or research for a company, university or other entity, including service as an expert witness
- * Part-time employment or appointment at a company, university, government agency or other entity (including while on leave from MIT)
- * Membership on a corporate, technical, scientific or advisory board
- * Speaking at corporate or other conferences or seminars, including speaking at academic conferences or seminars for other universities in connection with the receipt of an honorarium, monetary prize or other compensation.
- * Providing commissioned papers, reports, or editing services
- * Teaching/lecturing outside MIT, at universities or companies, in degree or non-degree programs
- * Participating in a talent or other academic recruitment program for a company, university, government or other entity, including in exchange for support in the form of research funding, lab facilities or research staff, or in connection with the receipt of an honorarium, monetary prize or other compensation
- * Teaching in MIT's executive, professional, international or other special or summer programs

Do not include the amount of compensation.

Examples of uncompensated outside professional activities:

- * Appointment at a company, university, government agency or other entity (including while on leave from MIT)
- * Service to professional societies or outside educational Institutions
- * Service on government or industry review boards or panels, or special commissions or committees
- * Teaching in MIT's executive, professional, international or other special or summer programs

Do not include uncompensated incidental or outside academic activities that are part of your normal MIT duties, such as reviewing publications, attending conferences, or making research presentations or lecturing at other universities.

For additional guidance on international activities please see the FAQs on the VPR website, including information on external academic appointments and other outside activities.

Check the box "Located Outside the U.S." for all activities (compensated or uncompensated) that take place with, or under the sponsorship of, a non-U.S. entity of any type (university, company, government or other agency), either in person or remotely, and enter the country where the company/entity is based.

** Denotes entities you have sync'd from the COI module.

OUTSIDE FINANCIAL INTERESTS AND RELATIONSHIPS

For the current reporting period, list any company or other entity, both domestic and international, that has a relationship with your MIT activities in any way and from which you, or any member of your immediate family, received any payments (including honoraria or royalties) for employment, consulting, board membership, or other relationship, or in which you have an ownership or equity interest.

Examples of relationships to MIT activities that an outside entity could have:

- * The company/entity sponsors research or teaching activities at MIT in which you are directly involved
- * The company/entity has made gifts to MIT which are under your control or directly benefit your MIT research or teaching activities
- * The company/entity has products or research interests that could benefit significantly from your research activities at MIT
- * The company/entity licenses MIT intellectual property in which you have an interest as an inventor
- * The company/entity sells materials or services to MIT that are used in your MIT research or teaching

Check the box "Located Outside the U.S." for any company or entity listed in this section that is based outside the U.S. or under non-U.S. ownership, and enter the country where the company/entity is based.
